

Brazil COVID-19 Travel Update – June 28, 2021

Passengers over age two must have a negative RT-PCR laboratory test taken within 72 hours before their flight. (Children under 12 are exempt if all their travel companions tested negative.) Those who want to arrive by land from neighboring countries must meet strict criteria and go directly to the airport.