Djbouti COVID-19 Travel Update – July 1, 2021

Visitors must have proof of a negative virus test taken within 72 hours of boarding their flight for Djibouti, and not more than 120 hours before their arrival. Upon landing, travelers are given another test at a cost of $30. Some destinations beyond the capital require a negative test certificate for entry.