Gabon COVID-19 Travel Update – July 1, 2021

Visitors are allowed to enter with proof of a negative virus test taken in the five days before arrival. A PCR test will be given upon landing at a cost of about $35, and travelers must quarantine until a negative result is obtained. A negative test taken in the prior two weeks is required to travel between cities and provinces in Gabon.