

Namibia COVID-19 Travel Update – July 9, 2021

American tourists need a negative PCR test taken within seven days before their flights to enter. Anyone arriving with an older test will be placed in quarantine and tested at their own cost until a negative result is obtained. Children under age five do not need a test.