

Nigeria COVID-19 Travel Update – July 9, 2021

Americans aged 10 and over must have a negative PCR test taken in the 96 hours before travel and must pay for another test that will be done in Nigeria a week after arrival. Visitors must self-isolate until a negative result for the second test has been received. Passengers departing Abuja International airport are asked to provide a negative test result taken in the previous three days.