

Russia COVID-19 Travel Update - April 1, 2021

Foreign nationals are prohibited from entering Russia and land border checkpoints are closed to passenger transport with the exception of limited rail links to Belarus.

This policy does not apply to persons arriving by air from Armenia, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Cuba, Egypt, Ethiopia, Finland, Germany, Greece, India, Japan, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Maldives, Qatar, Serbia, Seychelles, Singapore, South Korea, Sri Lanka, Switzerland, Syria, Tajikistan, Tanzania, Turkey, United Arab Emirates, United Kingdom, Uzbekistan, Venezuela, Vietnam, or to certain categories of foreign nationals arriving via land, rail, or sea transport.

Further exemptions exist for lawful residents, diplomats, airplane crew members, or those traveling for urgent business or medical reasons. Persons seeking to enter Russia must present documentation issued in either English or Russian showing a negative result for COVID-19 issued no more than 72 hours prior to departure using a polymerase chain reaction (PCR) test. Additionally, all persons, regardless of purpose, must carry proof of medical insurance valid for use in Russia for the entire duration of their intended stay. The minimum coverage amount should be US $35,000.

Persons traveling to Russia for purposes of employment must undergo a 14-day quarantine upon arrival. Russian nationals returning from abroad are required to submit an online registration form, undergo a PCR test within 72 hours of arrival in Russia, and report their test results to national authorities.

Registration forms are available at the following URL: <https://www.gosuslugi.ru>

All travelers must complete a Health Declaration Form (link on ItsEasy website).
